FOURTEENTH YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1904.

NUMBER 53

Of Local Interest.

County court Monday.

Get out the garden tools.

Work at the K. P. lodge Friday evening.

The usual cry, "The peach crop is killed," is now due.

A number of fine horses will be on exhibition Monday.

Judge Shugars says "trade" is unusually poor in his court.

The small boy will soon be digging his bait, getting ready for Saturday.

Better let the garden alone for a few weeks. Wait 'till you are convinced that there will be no more snow.

Dr. Pearce will fill his pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning. The Epworth League will meet in afternoon at usual hour.

The milliners have a beautiful line of spring goods and the ladies have been flocking to see the displays. See announcement of openings.

Deputy County Clerk, Ed Doty, went out to Dix river one afternoon last week and bagged eight or ten snipe, a bird very rare and scarce in this locality. They are hard to shoot, but Ed is one of Garrard's best shots.

Attorney R. L. Davidson has moved his office to room formerly occupied by Col John W. Miller while Master Commissioner, where he will be glad to see his old friends and any new ones having legal business to be looked after.

No clew has been found in the Ruck or assassination, at Danville, and it looks as if the guilty will go unpunished. The officers have done all that humans can, but with absolutely nothing to work on, it was a fruitless task.

Millinery Opening.

Noel Sisters have their Spring Opening of Pattern hats, Saturday, March 26, 1904. Miss Lilly invites her old friends and customers of Lancaster to come over to Danville and see their elegant display.

Mrs. Florence Bacon, of Boston, Mass., is here this week getting a class in physical culture. Mrs. Bacon is one of the best teachers in the country, and our people have a rare opportunity to take instructions from her. She is stopping at the New Mason Hotel.

A Pleasant Evening.

The Preachersville Masonic Lodge, which entertained a number of Lancaster brethren recently, came down Tuesday and attended a meeting of Lancaster Lodge, 104. Supper was served at the Mason Hotel, after which the lodge meeting was held, during which a candidate was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason. The supper was served at the regular hour and in the manner in which Masons delight, that is, without any blow or parade. The usual cut and dried, tiresome and windy speeches were ruled out.

A Good Lodge.

A number of local Knights of Pythians attended the district meeting at Stanford, and report a most delightful visit. Taken all 'round, Stanford has one of the best K. P. lodges in the state. It is composed of the best men in that section, every one a gentleman, one with whom you feel it an honor to be seen. Few lodges succeed in keeping out an occasional black sheep, and we congratulate Diadem Lodge on her successful resolution to keep the bars up against the burr tail element. It is the only way to maintain a good lodge, as all experienced lodge men will say.

Millinery Opening, April 1 and 2.
The Logan Dry Goods Co.

Will be Here Monday.

Mr. A. E. Hundley writes that he will be here Monday with the celebrated stallion, Kentucky's Artist, and will exhibit him on the streets. Kentucky's Artist has attracted attention of the horsemen from all over the state, and his presence Monday will be enjoyed by all lovers of fine horse flesh.

"Pat" Gives Good Excuse.

When a jury in the circuit court brought in a verdict Tuesday, it read that the defendant be confined in the "Pen." for such a length of time, etc. Judge Bell soon noticed the abbreviation, and called the foreman, Henry Patterson and asked why it was done. "An abbreviation will not do in a verdict," said he. "Well," replied Henry, "your honor, there was not a man on the jury who could spell 'penitentiary,' and we had to abbreviate it."

Circuit Court.

The present term of court is by far the smallest in volume of business of any held in recent years. There were some suits on the docket, but none of interest to the general public. The dockets have been pretty well cleared, the juries doing most excellent work and sticking the screws to the small fry criminals. Aaron Smith and Ben Wallace were sent to the penitentiary for one and two years, respectively, for house-breaking, which were all the penitentiary convictions. The case against Jno. Metcalfe for killing his brother, was continued until next court, on account of the illness of Col. Welch, one of the attorneys.

Will Accomplish Much Good.

The Record, whose chief aim is to assist in bringing about that which is best for the community, wishes to express its great delight at the good result from the musical entertainment at the Christian church last Friday. People will seek amusement and pleasure and it is the duty of the Christian people to put in their reach that which will uplift and lead people to better lives. Such entertainments as the organ recital, and the beautiful singing bring people to the church who would not attend otherwise, and as it is this class for whom the church should reach out, the music will serve to accomplish something which has always been a proposition to the ministers. We congratulate the congregation, and especially Bro. Tindler, upon this spirit to not only bring more pleasure to regular attendants, but encourage those out in the world to come to the sanctuary.

Can't Equal Richmond.

Mr. John S. Marrs, the clever clerk at the Hotel Glyndon, Richmond, was here a few days recently, and surprised the friends of his old home by "blowing" about Richmond. He seemed to have gone back on his old home, as every thing mentioned here could not come up to what "we have in Richmond." Richmond is one of the best towns on the map, but the boys could not stand for Marrs' "laying it" over Lancaster, so set about to "fix it" with him. He was stopping at the Mason Hotel, and the proprietor, Owen Shugars, sent a servant to Dix River and had him catch a large mud turtle. The turtle was placed in Marrs' bed. That night, he retired about 11 o'clock, and shortly after came running through the hall into the office clad only in a short night shirt, and yelling at the top of his voice, "My gawd! Run up and see what 'tis in that bed!" he gasped. Mr. Shugars accompanied Marrs back to the room. "Look, look, what is that?" pleaded Marrs. "That? Oh, that is nothing but a Lancaster bed bug," calmly replied Shugars. "Oh, is it?" said Marrs, "why didn't you say so. We have 'em so much larger in Richmond, that I did not know what it was."

The Loyal Legion will meet at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Eld. F. M. Tindler will preach at Christian church next Lord's day on the following subjects: 10:45 "The church a Spiritual Force." 7:15 "The Dignity of Labor."

The Ladies' Aid Society will have an exchange at the Post Office Saturday afternoon. All kinds of country produce will be on hand at low prices. Fresh butter, eggs, old ham, jowls, and in fact anything in the eating line. These exchanges will be held every Saturday until further notice.

Big Athletic Tournament.

The Lancaster Athletic Association is completing arrangements for the largest tournament ever held in Central Kentucky, and indications point to a most successful meeting. There will be no restrictions, and teams may work in all the "rings" they please to, so some lively contests will be seen. The dates are June 22, 23 and 24. Full particulars and details will be given in next issue of The Record.

Handsome Souvenir.

Senator George T. Farris has our thanks for a pretty calendar and souvenir of the recent Legislature. It contains a list of members of the body, pictures of all the presidents of the United States, and last, but by no means least, a handsome photo of the Senator. No member of the Senate did harder, or more faithful work than did Senator Farris, and those who want honest legislation, and especially those who are opposed to whisky, appreciate his valiant services. The temperance people owe him a debt of gratitude, and we believe they fully appreciate his good work.

Business Change.

When the statement, "Tom Walker has sold his hardware store," was passed around this week, there were many expressions of regret that the clever gentleman and his popular son and partner, John, were to retire from business in our city. They have conducted the large establishment for several years, and enjoyed a large patronage. They were leaders in every move for improvement and always cheerful and liberal contributors to any move for the town's betterment. They will return to farming, and we sincerely trust will continue as residents of Lancaster. The stock was purchased by Messrs. Robt. L. Elkin, of this city, and J. R. Mount, of Covington. The new firm is composed of experienced business men, and their success is a foregone conclusion. The stock is now being invoiced.

Would Work Well in Lancaster.

Jessamine Journal:—The recent grand jury indicted the town of Nicholasville under the head of nuisance for permitting certain houses and stands known as weinerwurst stands to be built on and across the sidewalks and for permitting disorderly conduct upon the streets and for the using of profane and indecent language. This is a move in the right direction, for there is no reason why a man should be permitted to swear upon the streets where ladies are constantly passing and using indecent language in the presence of children. If every citizen in Nicholasville should adopt the same plan as that of Esq. James F. Barkly, who has upon several occasions had parties arrested for profanity and using indecent language, such nuisances would soon be stopped.

Automobile Free.

The Royal Tailors will give 10 Auto mobiles to their customers absolutely free. Each customer stands an equal chance to get one, see J. C. Hemphill, who will tell you all about it. 3-25-1f

Bring us your Job Work.

A Deserving Young Man.

The accompanying half-tone engraving is a fairly good likeness of one of Lancaster's most popular and deserving attorneys, Mr. R. L. Davidson. Mr. Davidson was born and reared in Garrard county, being a son of Mr. Leander Davidson, one of our substantial citizens and farmers. Mr. Davidson was a close student while in the local schools, much of his time being spent in Garrard College. He then entered the law department of the University of Lexington, where he graduated receiving first honors in a large class. He then entered the law department of the University of Virginia where he graduated, receiving the 1st Thesis prize, an award offered each year for the best paper upon some question of law. He returned to Lancaster, and soon received his license at the local bar. He has continued the practice of his profession in our city, and enjoys a remarkably good practice. Mr. Davidson is a model citizen in every respect, having no bad habits at all, and by strict attention to business, steady habits and always standing for what is right and proper, has gained the admiration and friendship of the people. He is now a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county attorney, and his perfect fitness for the place, and the fact that he has always been found shoulder to shoulder with his party, doing what he could in an honorable way for its success and advancement make him an ideal candidate, and his many friends believe he will be given the honor, being firmly convinced that he will carry it to victory and fill the office in a manner that will reflect great honor upon his party and himself.

Look at the label on your paper, and if in arrears please settle.

R. L. JENNINGS
Paint Lick.

John E. Stormes, one of Lancaster's druggists and most popular citizens, has been spending some weeks in Florida. Being a great fisherman, he put in most of his time on the gulf and banks of the many streams in that locality. Monday, he had a very narrow escape from a most horrible death. Having visited that country last year, he thought he was surely "on to the ropes" when he went down this winter, and frequently did things which his guide cautioned him not to do. At the time mentioned above, he wandered away from the guide and sought a cozy nook where he thought he would get a "bite." He had scarcely located when a large alligator spied him, swam slowly up to the spot and made a rush for the bank and the faithful Garrard county fisherman. Very fortunately, the guide had missed Mr. Stormes and followed him up, and, just as the monster was preparing to leap upon the Lancaster pill-roller, the guide sank an axe into the animal's head, killing it instantly. The whole thing occurred so quickly that Mr. S. did not realize the danger until the guide had struck the fatal blow, and then the narrow escape dawned upon him, so gasping, "Run for the jug!" he fainted and sank to the ground. The jug was procured, some old "Barlow & Stone" (which Jack had been keeping in his cellar for many years) applied and he was soon making tall tracks for the hotel. He left for Lancaster that night and is expected home today or tomorrow.

CENTRAL RECORD

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky., March 25, 1904.

If the newspaper men knew what a fight their committee had to retain the advertising law, they would ponder well before supporting another cheap screw politician for the Legislature. The newspapers are responsible for who is elected, and the boys will do well to take the advice of one who had some experience with matters of value to the craft and support only men who are for the good of the people-at-large, and give no support whatever to men who allow their hatred of some paper (who has exposed some fraud, more than likely) to make them fight laws which every sensible man knows should be upon the statute books.

The latest move to drive capital out of the state is the effort to collect a large and unjust tax from the State banks. People talk of Kentucky lagging at the tail end of the procession when it is really a wonder that capital is invested here at all. Every corporation is taxed to the limit, and on every trivial matter and everything possible is done to drive money out of Kentucky. It is all brought about by peanut politicians.

Another Russian war vessel has committed hari-kari by running against a mine and getting blown up. The Japs will save ammunition if they let the Russian navy alone. It will destroy itself in time.

There is always something to be thankful for. Just now, as man, poor man, is brooding over the winter's coal bills, the billy goat butts in and announces bock beer on tap.

News from the Jap war is just about as interesting as the graduating essays at a school commencement, and equally as difficult to understand.

The employees of the American Can Co., Chicago, are on a strike. As the season for "rushing the can" is drawing nigh, this may cause trouble.

Those fool robbers and blue birds that gave us a false alarm of spring a few weeks ago are getting what they deserve.

With the Smoot investigation and the Bristow report, Congress is better than a vaudeville show.

Senator Farris' Eagle Eye.

Just before adjournment of the Legislature, the whisky element tried to "work a rabbit's foot," by slipping through a bill which would permit the sale of beer in local option precincts. Our own Senator George T. Farris, who is up to the tricks of the lobbyists, had a weather eye out, however, and let the cat out of the bag when the bill was up to "place malt tonics under the jurisdiction of the pure food law." Farris, in stentorian tones, stated that the object of the bill was none other than a gigantic scheme to authorize the sale of beer in every local option precinct in the state; that the bill says all malt liquors containing less than 5 per cent of alcohol shall be classed as non-intoxicating food, and if malt tonics and malt extracts are classed as liquid foods, as this bill sought to class them, then any sort of malt brew, including beer, which contains less than 5 per cent of alcohol, could be sold as food anywhere in the state and absolutely defeat the local option law, so far as prohibiting the sale of beer is concerned. The bill was about to slip through without any one knowing its real intent, and the roll call on its passage had reached Farris' name before the cunning scheme was exposed. The bill was then defeated. It had passed the House almost unanimously as its hidden intent was not exposed.

Good Spirits

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver-and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower-the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. 1 Aug

"Do It Today."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today-and let that remedy be Dr Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure-as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. Death of Charles Lee.

On Tuesday, March 1, death entered our home and took from us our dear and beloved one who was so dear and precious to us. It was so hard to give him up, but while our loss is great, his gain is greater. He suffered for some time with a dreadful cough and bronchial trouble. He was 66 years old and a member of the Christian church for about 40 years. He was a true christian and always ready and willing to help those in need and trouble. He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters to mourn their great loss. Oh, may we live as he did-live, oh, may we love as thou didst love, oh, may we join you in heaven above, Jesus has called him home, our pride and loved one of our home. We thank our many kind friends for their kindness during our great bereavement.

At the graduation exercises last week, Dr Lewis McMurtry, well-known here, delivered the principal address.

The Christian church was filled with representative Lancaster people Friday evening, the occasion being the dedication of the new Kilgen pipe organ. The many expressions of delight and words of praise of the performers go to prove the writer's opinion that the entertainment was one of the most successful and delightful ever given in Lancaster, and our town has always been noted for its good musicians and taste in such matters. The program, as printed in last issue of The Record, was rendered, but an enjoyable number added was the clarinet solo by Mr Brown Anderson, of Nicholasville. Mrs J C Taylor, of Lexington, presided at the organ, and her selections were highly appreciated. Her playing showed marked ability and careful training, and the liberal applause was a testimonial of the appreciation by the audience. Mrs Juliet Gill Rogers, whose sweet soprano voice and graceful manner have won the hearts of our people, sang in a manner quite incomparable. She was in excellent voice and sang with a lightness, delicacy and dramatic effect that won for her enthusiastic applause. Mrs Rogers, who is gifted with an exceptionally fine voice, was educated at Miss Clara Baur's Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, an institution which enjoys the reputation of being the most careful and painstaking of any in the United States. Her last number, "Cavatina" from La Favorita, was an example of exquisite singing, perfect phrasing, free from exaggeration, genuinely touching, and constantly beautiful in sound. Miss Eunice Foushee, of Lexington, found the audience in a most appreciative frame of mind. She rose to the occasion like a skylark, and sang her numbers in a manner which displayed the rich mezzo-soprano quality of her voice to great advantage. Miss Foushee has had careful musical training and she gives ample evidence of its value. Many were the compliments passed upon her singing, and our people earnestly trust that they will again have the pleasure of hearing her. The chorus by the choir was exceptionally good. The church was beautifully decorated and the entertainment pronounced by all to be the most artistic ever given in Lancaster.

TAKE WINE

"For thy stomach's sake" was doubtless the prescription of apostolic times for "stomach trouble." Wine for eighteen hundred years past has been a favorite prescription for poor digestion among general practitioners. You need a little wine to warm up the stomach, or to stimulate the stomach, as the case may be, was the common form of the prescription. But nobody has yet said you need a little wine to cure stomach trouble. Wine won't do that. And yet that's the one need of the diseased stomach—not stimulation, but cure.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and thus restores lost flesh and lost strength through the assimilation of perfectly digested food.

"Nineteen years ago, I was taken sick with stomach trouble," writes Mr. James H. Melligan, of 822 E. Washington St., Syracuse, N. Y. "Commenced to treat with different physicians and in that length of time fifteen different physicians have treated me, off and on, up to a year ago. Some of the physicians claimed I had liver complaint, others said Bright's disease, others said intestinal dyspepsia. I have had doctors tell me they could do no more for me. Have in the time mentioned tried any number of other medicines. I must acknowledge that I have not in all of this time received from any doctor or other medicine the benefit that I received from Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has done wonders for me, and I cannot speak too highly in its praise."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose, therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

"Joe" Blackburn's Carpet Bag.

Senator "Joe" Blackburn, of Kentucky, went to the Senate Tuesday carrying an old fashioned carpet bag. It was of many colors, and was stuffed with documentary evidence as to why Gen. Leonard Wood should not be promoted to a Major Generalship.

"This is the sort of bag carried by the Northerners after the war when they broke into office in the South," said Senator Blackburn.

"Zeb Whitman, of Harrodsburg, was asked once to give a definition of the word 'carpet bagger.'"

"A carpet bagger," he said, "is a tid-bit politician who lives one day of the week on chicken and the other six on feathers. When he wants to move all he has to do is to put out the fire, call the dogs and 'git.'"

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. In view of these reliable figures your poultry should receive careful attention if you desire to make a large profit.

The first organized effort to substitute a diversity of crops for the exclusive cultivation of tobacco to be made in Montgomery county, was inaugurated at a meeting held by some fifty or sixty planters at St. Bethlehem, at which the "Red River Truck Growers' Association of St. Bethlehem" was formed. This movement is the result of the present unsatisfactory condition of the tobacco trade throughout the entire dark belt, resulting in low prices for the farmers for their weed. The purpose of the new organization is to raise enough vegetables in the St. Bethlehem section to ship at least a car load of same to Northern markets each day of the season. Several hundreds of acres have already been pledged, and many others will be promised by the planters interested. The farmers are becoming greatly interested in the movement looking to a diversity of crops throughout that section and an abandonment of the exclusive cultivation of tobacco. It is assured, however, that enough tobacco will still be raised to supply the demands from the section.—Reporter & Falcon.

The outlook for the horse industry was never before more promising.—With the progress of national development has materialized increased demand for horses. So pronounced has been the enlarged use of horses for the past five years that domestic consumption has nearly exhausted the supply. The surplus is so slight that prices have remained nominally stationary, while other classes of live stock have declined in value materially. All the modern industrial developments of civilized nations were made possible by the use of horses, and the future demand promises to be of increased proportions. Horses for general utility use are indispensable, and as nations advance in wealth and affluence the demand for horses is intensified. There are no substitutes to eliminate the noble equine in his sphere of usefulness in the progress of mankind. The equine fashion of the twentieth century will be repeated in the succeeding cycle and the future of the industry is brilliant with encouraging promise. The breeder who raises good horses of any commercial class is assured of a stable and remunerative market for his surplus and has every encouragement to intelligently exploit the industry.—Drover's Journal.

J. R. McKinney, of Madison county, sold recently to T. J. Curtis a fine two year old jack $750. This is the highest price paid for a two year old jack in this county for many years.

B. E. Buckley, of Centerville, has purchased the past few days, about 100,000 pounds of tobacco, as follows: Of B. A. Batterson, two crops, 18,000 pounds at 8 and 8 1/2; Walter Switzer, 10,000 at 8c. Hub Griffith 15,000 lbs at 10 and 8 1/2; Hig Patterson 6,000 at 10c; T. D. Tumston 8,000 at 8c; John Morrie 15,000 at 7c; Mr. Martin 6,000 at 7c.—Cynthiana Log Cabin.

Ordinary persons who undertake to name in order the four most valuable crops raised in this country during the past year will probably, if turning to the statistics for verification, lose confidence in the sufficiency of their information. Everybody, of course, would include cotton, and probably a majority would put corn first. But few would include hay, and fewer still would place it above wheat. This, however, is the order—corn, cotton, hay and wheat.

To the Voters of the Fifth Appellate Court District of Kentucky.

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the docket of my court touching the rights of corporations and the exercises of franchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine. I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRELL.

Mrs. Chas. Spach, of Fifth St., New Philadelphia, O., says: "For three months I had rheumatism in a very severe form. My feet were so badly swollen that they felt as if I were standing on needles. Could walk only with great difficulty and severe pain. The pain was so severe as to give many sleepless hours at night. I was a great sufferer. Could find no relief until I took LIFE PLANT. Two bottles cured me. I cannot say too much for it."
